MISSION

The Twin Cities Youth Media Network (TCYMN) strengthens the youth media field by supporting, sharing, and promoting the work of youth media makers and adult mentors. We believe in the power of youth media to develop creativity, build critical thinking skills, and increase community engagement.

TCYMN is a member-based network of youth media educators, teachers, artists, and organizations that provide youth media opportunities to young people in the Twin Cities area.

Membership BENEFITS:

- Share youth media programming ideas and curriculum resources
- Network with other media organizations and teaching artists
- Inclusion in the annual TCYMN showcase at the Walker Art Center
- Representation in the annual TCYMN Media Market
- Increased public awareness of your program or organization
- Become a part of TCYMN's web presence and online community
- Engage youth in networking, curating, and event planning opportunities
- Exchange production resources with other members
- Airtime on local Cable Access channels
- Opportunities for national youth media networking
